TELEGRAPH.

Simla, the 17th May 1883.

No. 125.—The following revised paragraph 6 of the Rules for Press Messages in India, which were sanctioned by the Governor General in Council, with effect from the 1st January 1882, is published for information, in substitution of the Rule sanctioned in Public Works Department Notification No. 62 of the 6th March 1883 :—

"6. The Proprietor, Editor or Manager of a registered newspaper may telegraph, at the usual Press rates, bonâ fide urgent instructions to its correspondents or employés on the subject of matter published or to be published in that newspaper. In cases where the privilege may clearly have been abused, the Check Office will call on the sender to make good the difference between press and general rates, and the Director General of Telegraphs is empowered to withdraw this concession in case of the management of a newspaper declining to comply with such requisition from the Check Office, should he, after investigating the case, consider that the demand for additional payment was justified."

W. S. TREVOR, Colonel, R. E.,
